Reviewer Acknowledgment from the Editorial Office

December 2017

I am writing on behalf of my co-editors to thank all colleagues who have so generously contributed to the journal as peer reviewers during 2017, and who are listed below.

We are keen to make sure that the journal's double-blind peer-reviewing process meets the highest academic standards and provides authors with excellent critical feedback. Constructive, high quality and timely reviews enable the quality of the articles we publish to increase and will move us further towards our goal of eventually achieving an impact factor.

We very much appreciate your input to the journal and look forward to our ongoing relationship with you.

Lynn Clouder, Editor in Chief

On behalf of the Editorial Team: Helen Buchanan (Co-Editor), Virginia King (Technical Editor) and our much-missed co-editor, the late Vinette. Cross.
